

millennials: the lowest full time employment, the highest part time & unemployment millennials are the generation with the lowest annual earnings:

millennials rank second in spending power, due to the sheer size of their demographic millennials have the highest rate of residence in central city communities... and the lowest rate of residence in suburban and rural communities percentages of US millennials by region:

population, gender and hispanics of millennials through 2018:

